

RAFLA

RAFLA

Rafla is a circus show full of acrobatic, juggling and humor. It's a story about a small restaurant that customers have left but the owners like to spend their time doing everything else than food.

In the show you will see onions, pizzas and people flying, but everything is under the control.

Watch trailer: <https://vimeo.com/227597719>

Technical info

Staff on tour: 2 performers

Stage requirements: 5m x 5m, straight surface

Sound: Festival organizer provides PA -system and one technician to run the music.

Show in the evening: If the show is in the evening and it's dark, the festival organizer provides a basic lights.

Props: All props for the show fits in the big luggage, which can be brought by plane in the special luggage.

Set up time: The technician must be no later than 15 minutes before the show, for checking the sound.

Dressing Room: The festival organizer provides a dressing room with lockable space for the performers close to the stage area.

Accommodation: The festival organizer provides one double room for Kate and Pasi.

Flights and transportation: The festival organizer provides, flights, transportation from and to the airport, transportation between and from the venue (if needed).

Company

Katerina Repponen and Pasi Nousiainen started to work together in 2010. Their passion for hand to hand acrobatics naturally brought them together. Pasi graduated from Circuspiloterna in Stockholm, while Kate studied at professional circus school in Lahti in Finland. Together, they then went on to improve their technique in a one month workshop at Kiev Circus Academy. The originality of their hand to hand and foot juggling act allowed them to compete in the "Golden Karl" International Circus Festival in Latvia 2014, where they won a silver prize. They have also had the opportunity to work in many traditional circuses, contemporary circuses, variety shows, street performances, and theatre productions in Europe and the USA for companies such as Cirque Eloize, Krystallpalast Variete and Sirkus Finlandia. The versatility of both artists helped them in the creation of their own 45 minute contemporary circus show, "SUHDE". Kate and Pasi want to continue diversifying their projects, from big shows, to creative projects, so they can pursue their passion for circus in every respect.